

It is with a heavy and sad heart that the announcement is made to cease Perpetual Adoration from 3.00pm today.

The prime minister has announced an increase to Level 3 immediately, and to Level 4 in 48 hours. With all of that, we need to stay at home. We knew this would come but it doesn't make it any easier.

God bless you all, take care and we will be in touch soon.

Hopefully it won't be too long before the chapel is open again.

Kind regards and God bless always
